The suspect, 67-year-old Sergio Pino, was found dead with a self-inflicted gunshot wound in a bedroom \(/news/us-news/136715/killer-mom-toddler-murder-suicide-custody-dispute\) at his multi-million-dollar mansion at a Coral Gables gated community on Tuesday morning, law enforcement sources told WPLG (<https://www.local10.com/news/local/2024/07/16/fbi-raids-coral-gables-home-of-prominent-developer-sergio-pino/>).

This come after the real estate mogul's 32-year-long estranged wife, Tatiana Pino, accused him in their divorce proceedings that he poisoned her with fentanyl.

Pino was also under investigation of an attempted hit-and-run in which he allegedly paid someone to ram a Home Depot \(https://www.the-express.com/latest/home-depot\) truck into his estranged wife's vehicle with her inside.

"Sergio Pino took his own life today. The level of law enforcement activity at his residence was unprecedented and unnecessary, especially since we had offered to surrender him should that have become necessary," Rabin said.

"Today's events mark a very tragic ending to an investigation that we were confident we could successfully defend. There were many rumors and allegations but what was lacking was evidence."

In their divorce proceedings, Pino's wife claimed that she began to suffer unexpected health issues between 2019 and 2020, when a doctor detected fentanyl in her system.

Pino, who filed for divorce in 2022, alleged that her estranged husband was the one who poisoned her with the opioid.

The FBI had reportedly raided Pino's estate and office in Coral Gables last month as part of an ongoing investigation over possible threats made against his wife's life.

"In this already complex divorce, we have had to address the terrorism and the attacks on Tatiana's life. It is truly terrible," Raymond J. Rafool, Tatiana Pino's attorney, told WPLG on Tuesday.

"Thankfully, the FBI is involved and working hard to keep Tatiana safe and bringing those responsible to justice."

Deanna Shifrin, Pino's divorce attorney, defended her client by saying there is "nothing to indicate that he ever harmed or wanted to harm" his wife.

"He was a gentle and kind man, loved and respected by the many people he employed at his businesses. He loved his children and grandchildren and talked of little else," Shifrin told WPLG.

"I do believe that the combination of unnecessarily destructive divorce litigation along with selective and salacious media coverage was humiliating to him and led to this tragedy."
